Important information

Before You Go

Your next adventure is just around the corner! Head to <https://my.trafalgar.com/> to tell us about your travel preferences—your Travel Director will take it from there to make sure everything runs smoothly. Looking for tips on packing, accommodations, dining or staying connected? You'll find it all in our handy pre-travel guide at <https://www.trafalgar.com/FAQ>.

Medical and Accessibility Information

Your well-being is our top priority. If you have any health-related concerns that could affect your journey or if you need specific accommodations, we're here to help. Simply complete a specific requirements form - just reach out to us if you haven't already, and we'll guide you through the process.

For guests requiring assistance with walking, boarding vehicles, or attending to personal needs such as dining or dressing, we kindly ask that you travel with a companion who can provide support throughout the trip. If you'll be bringing a wheelchair or other mobility aids, please let us know ahead of time so we can confirm what space is available onboard, and help you make the necessary arrangements to ensure your comfort.

We encourage you to carefully review your itinerary to ensure it aligns with your mobility and fitness levels. Your safety and enjoyment are essential to us, but please note that if, in the judgment of your Travel Director, your health or fitness poses a risk to yourself or others, you may be excluded from part or all of the trip without a refund. For full details, please refer to our booking conditions.

Food and Dietary Requirements

We want every meal to be a delightful part of your journey. If you have dietary preferences or requirements—such as vegetarian, lactose-free, or gluten-free options—please let us know at the time of booking on <https://my.trafalgar.com/>. Your Travel Director will do their utmost to communicate these needs to our partners but, while we'll try our best, we can't guarantee all requests will be met.

If you have allergies, your Travel Director will share ingredient details wherever possible, but we strongly recommend double-checking to ensure your safety. It's important that you take the necessary precautions to avoid any food or drink that might affect your health.

Flight Information

To make sure you're all set for our scheduled transfer, be sure to share your arrival flight details with us—or have your Travel Agent do it for you. If we don't have this information, you might miss the transfer and need to arrange your own way to the hotel, which could come at an extra cost to you.

Passport and Visa Information

Make sure your passport is valid for at least six months after your trip ends - it's an important detail that can't be overlooked. And don't forget to provide your passport details when registering for your trip, if you haven't already.

You'll need to travel with the same passport you used when booking, as ID checks can happen at some venues or sites.

If your journey involves entering multiple Schengen countries or re-entering the Schengen Area more than once, you'll need a multiple-entry visa. For expert advice on getting the right paperwork sorted, check in with the Embassy or Consulate of any destinations on your itinerary, including places you plan to visit during Optional Experiences or day trips.

EU Entry Rules: The Entry/Exit System (EES)

From 12 October 2025, the EU will introduce the Entry/Exit System (EES) – a new digital border process that replaces passport stamping for non-EU travellers.

When you first enter the Schengen Area, you'll register your photo and fingerprints at border control. After that, only quick biometric checks will be needed for up to three years.

The EES doesn't replace visas, but it makes border crossings smoother and more secure. Make sure you carry valid ID and be prepared for occasional questions about your trip or luggage during checks.

UK Travel Requirement: Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA)

Starting 8 January 2025, you'll need an Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) to enter or transit through the UK or Northern Ireland. It costs £16, is valid for two years, and must be approved before you travel.

The process is quick and simple, helping you move through border checks with ease. Visit our ETA information page for details: <https://www.trafalgargar.com/en-eu/resources/eta>, and check with your nearest consulate for any additional entry requirements specific to your itinerary.

From 25 February 2026, if you're a dual citizen you can't apply for an ETA. Instead, you'll need to travel with a valid UK or Irish passport or a Certificate of Entitlement.

Luggage Allowance

Here's what you need to know about luggage for your journey:

To keep things comfortable and within the coach's weight and space limits, each guest is allowed:

One large suitcase: It should weigh no more than 23kg (50lbs) and measure up to 76cm x 46cm x 25cm (30" x 18" x 10").

One piece of hand luggage: This needs to fit under the seat or in the overhead compartment, with dimensions not exceeding 30cm x 28cm x 14cm (12" x 11" x 6") and a weight limit of 7kg (15.4lbs). Hand luggage should be soft-sided—think backpacks or totes—and avoid wheels or telescopic handles.

We recommend weighing your luggage before you travel and making sure you can comfortably lift and carry it for short distances.

If you need to bring medical equipment, we're here to help. Just let us know in advance, and we'll do our best to accommodate your needs.

Don't forget to keep an eye on your spam folder— important emails are sometimes filtered there.

Arrival In Dublin

Trafalgar offers courtesy transfers to the hotel from Dublin Airport on the scheduled arrival day ONLY. See your itinerary pages for details.

Please collect your luggage, and exit through customs into the Arrivals Hall. Your Trafalgar Airport Host will be waiting for you in the arrivals area in either Terminal 1 in front of the Ice Currency Exchange or in Terminal 2 in front of the yellow sculpture, shortly before the above indicated times.

If you arrive outside these times, and haven't purchased a private transfer, you will need to make your own way to the hotel, which will be at your own expense. Should you take a taxi, do ensure that it is an official taxi from the rank outside the terminal building.

There are no refunds for missed or unused transfers as a result of flight delays, missed flight connections or cancellations.

During your trip

Your Experiences, Sites and Venues

While we aim to keep your itinerary details and Optional Experience pricing as accurate and current as possible, please note that some elements may be subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. For the latest updates, visit our website or speak with your Travel Director while on tour.

Optional Experiences

Your trip already includes a host of wonderful inclusions, however, we have passionately curated a selection of Optional Experiences to further personalise your trip. These can be booked through your Travel Director/Local Host at the commencement and during your trip. Cash, Visa, Mastercard and American Express are all accepted. Do remember to advise your credit card provider that you will be travelling abroad before leaving home. Children 15 and under are entitled to a 25% discount on all European-operated experiences (some Eastern Mediterranean trips excluded).

Many Optional Experiences are operated by independent third party suppliers. Occasionally these experiences involve outdoor activities and/or can be physically demanding. You should make your own decisions about these experiences and only participate in activities that you feel are suited to your own physical ability. We recommend you check that the insurance you have taken out also includes your participation in any adventure activities you may/will undertake during your overall trip.

Please Note: Some Optional Experiences may operate on an alternative day to that shown on the itinerary; your Travel Director will confirm full details when you join the trip. Optional Experiences offered are dependent on both the weather and number of participants.

If you need to cancel an Optional Experience within 24 hours of its start time, please note that a cancellation fee of at least 50% will apply.

Group Photos

We, at The Travel Corporation (TTC), take the data privacy of our travellers and guests very seriously and are committed to abiding by the associated governing laws. Please note that from time to time our Travel Directors may organise group photo opportunities as part of your trip experience. Such photos may be shared on our company's social media channels such as Facebook, Instagram, X or LinkedIn. We will not share the image with anyone for any use other than for company promotion. Please remove yourself from the group photos organised by the Travel Director if you choose not to participate.

Seat Rotation

A daily seat rotation policy guarantees that everyone gets to enjoy the great views, while travelling head and shoulders above the other traffic.

Air-Conditioning at Hotels

Please note: you'll travel in the comfort of an air-conditioned coach and will find air conditioning in many museums, restaurants and hotels. In some parts of Europe, particularly Central Europe and Alpine regions, air conditioning may be less powerful than you're used to at home or may not be available at every hotel.

To support local energy-saving requirements and seasonal guidelines, some hotels manage when air conditioning operates and for how long, in line with directives from local authorities. Where possible, they may offer a fan or portable cooling unit to help keep your stay comfortable.

Gratuities

We are confident that by the end of the trip you will have come to appreciate the important part your Travel Director, Driver and Local Specialists have played in its smooth running. If you are satisfied with their services, you may wish to express this satisfaction with a gratuity as is customary on escorted trips throughout the world. Many guests ask for guidance in this area; we would advise that an average gratuity for your Travel Director would be 6 GBP per person per day and for your Driver 4 GBP per person per day and for the Local Specialist 1 GBP per person for the service provided.

Travel with Respect

At Trafalgar we provide the best service possible to ensure you enjoy a wonderful holiday experience with your fellow travellers. While doing so, we will not tolerate any abusive, aggressive or anti-social behaviour towards our Travel Directors, drivers and suppliers, or to fellow guests.

We are committed to providing a secure, safe and respectful environment for everyone on our tours, regardless of gender, sexuality, ethnicity and religious beliefs.

Trafalgar may, in its sole discretion, remove any guest affecting the enjoyment of others with their behaviour and bar them from future trips within The Travel Corporation family of brands. If this occurs, the guest will be responsible for the cost of travel back to their hometown. Trafalgar shall not be liable for any losses incurred by the guest and no refund will be provided.

Guest Surveys

Towards the end of your trip, you will be emailed a brief electronic survey. We would be grateful if you could take a moment to complete it. This will help us to identify how well we performed and how we can fulfil your future travel needs.

Departure From Edinburgh

Your Trafalgar shuttle service from the last hotel to Edinburgh Airport is provided on the last day of the trip ONLY. Your Travel Director will advise your exact departure time from the hotel. Guests extending their stay in Edinburgh after the trip who have not purchased a separate transfer should make their own transfer arrangements. There are no refunds if the shuttle service is not taken.

MAKE TRAVEL MATTER®

Travel is an incredible gift; it has the ability to open our eyes to the unique cultures and spellbinding beauty of the natural world. But with this gift comes a responsibility – to protect the world as we know it. How We TreadRight is our 5-year sustainability strategy which addresses the impact we have on our planet, its people and wildlife, through 11 goals tied to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

As part of this strategy, we are committed to eliminating as many unnecessary single-use plastics as possible from our operations. We encourage guests to bring their own reusable water bottles to use throughout the day and there will be multiple rest stops allowing time for beverage purchases. In areas with potable drinking water, we will not offer single-use plastic water bottles on our coaches, and instead identify safe drinking water refill points along the tour. In areas with non-potable drinking water, we have endeavoured to provide tanks of filtered drinking water to refill your reusable water bottles, or we may provide boxed water or water bottles made from 50% recycled plastic.

Please place recyclables in recycling bins once used or ask your Travel Director about appropriate disposal locations. This small effort will have a major impact on reducing our footprint in our destinations.

Thank you for choosing to travel with us, bringing your reusable water bottle, and joining us on our mission to support United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and to create MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experiences. Learn more about the ways you can make an impact with us at <https://impact.ttc.com/>
